S. Boston Dec. 29.

Dear Miss Weston,

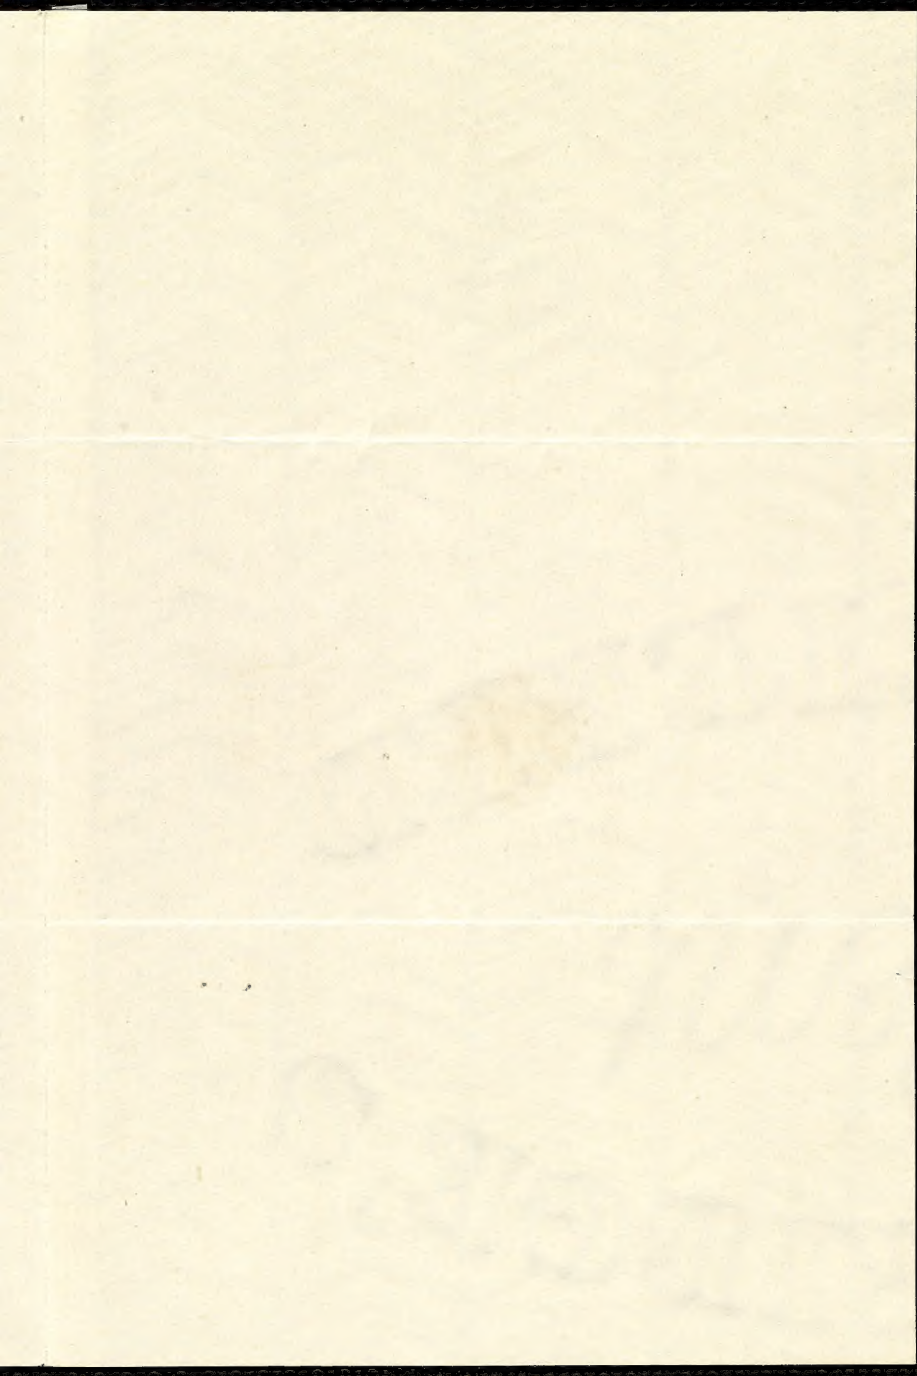

I cannot say
that the announcement of the appearance of the Liberty Bell recalled to my mind your request that I would write an article for it, because I had not forgotten it, but it did remind me
of my neglect to answer your note. It is now too late to do any thing

but ask your pardon
for it.

I ^{very} tried again & again to crudge my brains
into the production of something worthy
of your acceptance;
nothing came but
the conviction of my inability.

Success to the cause
in which you labour
so zealously.

Faithfully Yours
J. G. Howe
